

According to the SIT, Jolly targeted Mathew as he was suspicious of her activities. The post-mortem examination of Roy was conducted mainly because of the persistent demand of Mathew.

The presence of cyanide in the body was brought to light through Roy's post-mortem report.

Panel seeks protection
The State Committee would finalise the future action plan with suggestions of all employees and demanded that the real conspirators behind the accused be identified and punished and the government should take immediate steps for protection employees had worked hard to implement the Telangana government's schemes. Though new pattadar pass-books were given to 60 lakh people, remaining 10 lakhs are pending because of various disputes. Instead of amending the revenue Acts to resolve the disputes, residing government should own responsibility for the incidents, adding that repeated statements by some political leaders and prominent persons targeting the employees undermined the confidence of public in employees.
